Yanic Simard definitely falls on my list of "ones to watch". As the principal of the Toronto Interior Design Group, Yanic's work on a model home in Stouffville, Ont., graced the pages of our September issue, and left us hungry for more of his thoughtful, bright and airy interiors... Here are some of my fave spaces from this fresh face on the Canadian design scene...

Iconic pieces, stunning in their simplicity.

There's no excuse showing up for work looking disheveled with a bathroom like this at home...

Love this pendant...

So dreamy and elegant...
